Statutory Rules and Orders issued by the Ministry of Defence

MINISTRY OF DEFENCE

New Delhi, the 9th June 1951

S.R.O. 248.—The following bye-laws for regulating the appointment of agents by absentee owners of buildings or lands in the Barrackpore Cantonment, made by the Cantonment Board, Barrackpore, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 282 clause (29) of the Cantonments Act, 1924 (II of 1924), are hereby published for general information, the same having been previously published, and having been approved and confirmed by the Central Government, as required by sub-section (1) of section 284 of the said Act, namely :—

BYE-LAWS FOR REGULATING THE APPOINTMENT OF AGENTS BY ABSENTEE OWNERS OF BUILDINGS OR LANDS IN BARRACKPORE CANTONMENT.

1. The Executive Officer, if he considers that any owner of a building or land situated within the limits of the Cantonment, who, although ordinarily residing within the cantonment, temporarily absents himself therefrom for short periods so frequently or to such an extent, as to cause inconvenience to the cantonment administration, may notwithstanding the provisions of bye-law 1 by notice require such owner within 15 days from the date of receipt of such notice to appoint, in the manner hereinafter setforth a person residing within or near the cantonment, to be his agent for all the purposes of the Cantonments Act, 1924, or any rule or bye-law made thereunder.

2. Every owner of a building or land situated within the cantonment, who does not reside within the cantonment or who is absent therefrom or has been so absent for more than three months shall, if so required to do by the Executive Officer, appoint in the manner hereinafter setforth a person ordinarily resident within or near the cantonment to be his agent for all the purposes of the Cantonments Act, 1924, or any rule or bye-law made thereunder.

3. Every owner who is bound by bye-law 2 or is required by bye-law 1 to appoint an agent shall intimate to the Executive Officer in writing the name and address of such agent and when such agent shall have intimated to the Executive Officer in writing his willingness to serve, the owner shall be deemed to have complied with the preceding bye-laws.

4. The Cantonment Board may serve notices or bills upon, or demand payment of its dues from such agent instead of upon or from his principal and the principal shall thereupon become liable as if the notice or bill had been served upon, or the demand made from him personally.

5. Penalty.—Any owner of a building or land situated within the limits of the cantonment failing to appoint an agent in the manner required by bye-laws 1 to 3 shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and if he is continuing breach, with a further fine which may extend to...

five rupees for every day after the date of the first conviction, during which the offender is proved to have persisted in the offence.
